

Our Children – Our Future.

Under this motto, the ambassador of the child welfare association Deutscher Kinderschutzbund Aachen e.V., Jürgen Schulz-Wachler, developed the 'ChildrensTaler' (children's thaler).

The Good Cause:

'ChildrensTalers' are biscuits packaged in bags which are sold for 3 euros each. 1 euro of these will be donated to a project to be chosen by the buyer. The only condition is that the project should raise awareness especially for children and young persons and should be of benefit to them.

Distribution:

The 'ChildrensTalers' can be ordered from www.childrenstaler.eu and shipped all over Europe.
